Punkte in Flensburg — Warning, Driving Ban and License Revocation

Point system: 1–3 points registration, 4–5 warning, 6–7 driving ban, 8 points license revocation.

Deutsche Begriffe: Punktesystem | Flensburg | Fahreignungsregister | Verwarnung | Fahrverbot | Führerscheinentzug | Verjährung

The Punkte in Flensburg System

The Fahreignungsregister (Driving Record Register) at the Federal Motor Transport Authority (KBA) in Flensburg records traffic violations. For traffic offenses and crimes, 1 to 3 points are awarded per violation.

Point Scale and Consequences

Points	Stage	Consequence
1–3	Registration	No action, entry in register
4–5	Warning	Written warning, information about voluntary driving school
6–7	Verwarnung	Written warning, voluntary point reduction no longer possible
8	Revocation	License is revoked, re-issuance earliest after 6 months + MPU test

Points per Violation — Examples

1 point (serious traffic offenses):

• Mobile phone use while driving (100 €)

• Speeding 21–30 km/h over limit in built-up area

• Red light violation (light under 1 second)

2 points (very serious offenses / crimes with driving ban):

• Speeding 31+ km/h over limit in built-up area

• Red light violation (light over 1 second)

• Driving under the influence 0.5–1.09 BAC

• Hit and run (minor damage)

3 points (crimes with license revocation):

• Driving under the influence 1.1+ BAC

• Driving without license

• Hit and run with personal injury

Point Reduction — Voluntary Course

With 1–5 points, you can attend a driving aptitude course once every 5 years and reduce points by 1 point. Cost: approximately 400–700 €. From 6 points onwards, voluntary reduction is no longer possible.

Point Expiration

Points are not deleted collectively; each entry has its own expiration period:

Entry	Expiration Period
1-point violations (traffic offenses)	2.5 years
2-point violations (offense with driving ban)	5 years
3-point violations (crimes)	10 years

The period begins when the fine notice or verdict becomes legally binding.
