Childcare — Nanny, Afterschool Care and Costs

Childcare options in Germany: nannies, afterschool care, and full-day programs with cost information.

Deutsche Begriffe: Kinderbetreuung | Tagesmutter | Hort | Ganztagsbetreuung | Betreuungsgeld

Childcare Options in Germany

Tagesmutter / Tagesvater (Kindertagespflege)

- Care in small group (max. 5 children) with a qualified person at home
- For children aged 0-3 years (sometimes up to 6)
- Flexible hours, personalized care
- Costs: 0-600 €/month (depending on city and income)
- Arranged and subsidized by the youth office (Jugendamt)

Kindergarten (Kindertageseinrichtung)

- Legal right to a place from age 1 year
- Full-day (7:00-17:00) or half-day care
- Costs vary widely: 0-700 €/month
- Free of charge in some states (e.g., Berlin, Hamburg for final kindergarten years)

Hort (Schulkindbetreuung)

- For school-age children (6–10 years)
- Afterschool care (approx. 13:00–17:00)
- Lunch, homework help, activities
- Costs: approx. 50-259 €/month

Full-Day School (Ganztagsschule)

- School with afternoon program (until 16:00–17:00)
- Often free of charge (lunch only approx. 3–5 €/day)
- Not available at all schools

Costs & Subsidies

Who Pays Less?

- Bürgergeld recipients: Childcare fees covered completely
- Low-income earners: Cost coverage through youth office possible (§ 90 SGB VIII)
- BuT benefits: Lunch in kindergarten/aftercare subsidized
- Sibling discount: Many cities charge less for second child

Application for Cost Coverage

- 1. Submit application to Jugendamt
- 2. Provide proof of income
- 3. Approval usually valid for 12 months

Tips

- Register your child early (waiting lists!)
- Tagesmutter as alternative if kindergarten place unavailable
- Employers can provide childcare subsidy (tax-free up to 600 €/year)
